What is College Goal Sunday?

Why Attend?

If you are even thinking about education beyond high school, you will most likely need financial help.

Why Should I Care?

Want a better life? Want to make more money?

If you answer "yes" to either of those questions, this one-day event is for you.

A college graduate earns over a million dollars more in a lifetime than a high school graduate. What will you earn?

When and where is it held?

College Goal Sunday in Georgia will be held Sunday, February 10, 2008 at 2:00 pm at several locations throughout the state of Georgia. Locations are on the website.

What can I get?

Help from financial aid professionals and information on scholarships and going to college.

What should I bring?

Bring your latest tax information or your last paycheck stub that you received at the end of December. If you are under 24, also bring your parent/s or guardian.

What if I haven't done my taxes yet?

That's okay. Bring the tax information that you have. There will be chances to make changes if needed when your taxes are completed.

Do I have to know where I'm going to school?

No. But, have some idea of your college choices and bring them.

What can I do now?

Go to www.pin.ed.gov and apply for a PIN number. This number allows both the student and parent/s to apply for aid online, make corrections on information given on the FAFSA and access your records. Both student and parent/s need a PIN number and need it BEFORE the FAFSA is submitted.

Participants will be placed in a drawing for a scholarship!
